The Photo Comment Guide for 2026

A comment formula that works

One detail you noticed, then a feeling, then (if you like) a question. For example: That sunset behind you is unreal. You look so happy here, where was this?

Comments for every photo type

| Photo | Notice | Example |
|---|---|---|
| Selfie | Confidence, style, the light | This lighting was made for you. |
| Pet | The face, the personality | That face says "I did nothing wrong". |
| Travel | The place, the adventure | Adding this to my list, where is it? |
| Food | How it looks, who made it | I can almost smell this. Recipe please? |
| Professional | The achievement | Congratulations, so well deserved. |

Five rules for every comment

1. Be specific. "Love that blue jacket" says more than "nice pic".
2. Match the relationship. Teasing works with a friend, not with your manager.
3. Keep it kind. Never comment on weight, body or looks in a way that could hurt.
4. Keep it short. One or two sentences are enough.
5. Sound like you. Change a word or two so it is in your own voice.

Comments by relationship

| Relationship | How it sounds |
|---|---|
| Friend | Casual, playful, inside jokes are fine |
| Partner or crush | Sweet and warm, never too much in public |
| Family member | Proud and caring |
| Coworker | Polite and supportive, no teasing |
| Stranger or influencer | Friendly and respectful, about the photo, not the person's looks |

Emojis on each platform

Instagram and TikTok: one or two emojis make a comment feel friendly. Facebook: one emoji is plenty, words matter more. LinkedIn: words only, or one simple emoji for a big win.

Mistakes to avoid

Copy-paste comments: "nice pic" on every post looks like a bot. Wrong tone: a joke under sad news hurts. Too personal in public: keep private things for a message. Comments about bodies: compliment the style, the moment or the smile instead.

Plan your next comment

Fill this in, then make your comments on the Photo Comment Generator.

The photo (what is in it) and one detail you noticed

Who posted it, how close you are, and the tone you want
