The Rizz Guide for 2026

Rizz gets you noticed, and the conversation keeps it going. This guide covers the seven rizz styles, which line fits which app or place, follow-up questions, a respect checklist and a page to plan your own openers.

The seven rizz styles

Style	What it sounds like	Works best for
Smooth	Confident and charming, never pushy	First impressions
Funny	Jokes and wordplay that get a laugh	Parties and casual chats
Nerdy	Science, tech and pop culture references	Shared hobbies
Savage	Edgy and bold, playful teasing	Friends who enjoy banter
Romantic	Sweet and sincere	Showing real interest
Cringe	So cheesy it becomes funny	Breaking the tension
Celebrity-style	Big star confidence, all your own words	A playful, bold opener

Five tips for better rizz

1. Pick your own style. Use lines you can say out loud with confidence. If bold feels wrong, go mild.
2. Read the context. Dating apps allow more creativity. In person, short and friendly works best.
3. Add a keyword. An interest from their profile, like books, coffee or music, makes the line feel personal.
4. Plan the follow-up. The line opens the door. Have a real question ready for after it lands.
5. Respect the answer. If they are not interested, smile and move on.

Which rizz fits which place

Where	What works	Example opener
Tinder, Bumble or Hinge	Something from their profile, then a question	Your hiking photos have me convinced. What trail should I try first?
Instagram or TikTok DM	Light and natural, about their post	That playlist you shared is a whole mood. What song is on repeat right now?
In person	Short and friendly, easy to hear	Are you a playlist? Because I could put you on repeat all day.
Texting your partner	Romantic or cringe, just for fun	I would choose you over the last slice of pizza. That is real love.

Follow-up questions

After the opener, ask about them. Their interests: "What got you into that?" Their plans: "What is the best thing you did this week?" Their taste: "What is your go-to coffee order?"

Respect checklist

Read the signals. If someone looks busy or uninterested, skip the line. Accept a no. Say thanks and move on. Keep it clean. Never comment on someone's body, and never keep messaging after someone has stopped answering.
